Student Led Conferences

We are looking forward to welcoming families to classrooms for student led conferences when our students will share their learning. Willows students will be dismissed at 12 pm on April 27 for student led conferences. You will receive information from your child's classroom teacher after spring break with the class schedule for this day. As always, you can reach out to your child's teacher to arrange an alternate time if you are unable to come on the afternoon of April 27.
